CHAIRPERSON'S FORWARD

The innocent children bustling with various possibilities is the real asset of any nation. They are not only the citizens of today, but are the future of our nation. Hence it is our common responsibility to protect, harness and promote their childhood. The Indian Constitution guarantees the right to life, development, participation and protection to each of its citizen and which are equally applicable to the children as well. The State Government established the Maharashtra State Commission for protection of Child Rights on date 24th July 2007 for protection and conservation of the same.

Creation of a proper surrounding conducive for a safe healthy and confident life for every child is the principal objective of the commission. The commission coordinates with various government departments for ensuring effective implementation of the Child Rights Protection Act 2005, Juvenile Justice Act 2015, Protection of Children against Sexual Offences Act 2012 and Right to Education Act 2009. The commission takes serious cognizance of every complaint received in respect of offences against any child and attempts to ensures that every child gets justice. Besides ensuring the disposal of complaints, the commission also implements various workshops, awareness initiatives, counselling and various enlightenment programs for overall benefit of the children.

MAHARASHTRA STATE COMMISSION FOR PROTECTION OF CHILD RIGHTS

CHAIRPERSON'S FORWARD

The commission implemented the following initiatives during the period under review :-

- 1) Keep Playing (खेलते रहो)
- 2) Child Friendly Award (बालस्नेही पुरस्कार)

Similarly reviewed the POCSO and J.J. laws, and developed special protocol for the rehabilitation of children and held hearings of various pending cases. These initiatives have ensured justice, protection to the children and ensured an appropriate direction to their bright future.

The commission has caused a positive change in the lives of thousands of children. The commission is ensuring a competent and concrete structure with the cooperation from police, courts, child welfare committees, health and educational institutions, which will help create a safe and respectful environment for each and every child. I feel that when we see the growing a social awareness about the children's rights in Maharashtra state, this is definitely a result of the work done by the commission. I am convinced that the Maharashtra State Commission for protection of Child Rights is always alert to ensure protection, development opportunity and justice to the children in our state.

All of us should ensure that every child in our state leads a happy, safe and respectable childhood because this is our real national wealth

- Advocate Sushiben Shah
